

Hello Dancers (and Would-Be Dancers) Newsletter

News on Amy's weekend dance venue picks—opportunities for those who love to dance or just love to listen to great music! Ed and I have been to many of these venues (including many of the listed dance studios), so contact me if you have a question about any of them. If you know of an upcoming event, dance opportunity, or a new dance venue, let me know and I'll send it out to the group! If you go to any of the venues listed below, let me know what you think or if the event no longer exists (after all, Ed and I can only go to a few places each weekend and have our own opinions!). Please also send pictures, band recommendations and reviews, or any item that you would like to share with others about dancing in the Northeast Ohio area! This newsletter is e-mailed weekly on Fridays (or around that time!).

Weekend happenings

Now that the students are back to school, you can kick up your heels and go dance! Lots of options this weekend!

Make sure you check out the 9/22/19 entry below. We are going to participate in USA Dance's flashmob challenge for National Ballroom Dance Week

<https://usadance.org/general/custom.asp?page=NBDW2019> Connie King is going to provide instruction and then we are going to record our flashmob! Northeast Ohio Medical University's Sequoia Wellness is providing the venue, student volunteers and taco bar. Join us for a great National Ballroom Dance Week celebration! You can let us know if you can come through this MeetUp link <https://www.meetup.com/USA-Dance-Ohio-Chapter-Ballroom-Dancing/events/263724079/> Check out the flashmob routine here <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLJXB198rYa6kNkiVjotv5rB18QRteMZQ0>

Warm regards, Amy

Can't read the newsletter in your email?

For best viewing, view the PDF from the newsletter link. You can also look at my web site <http://ohiodance.webs.com> to download a newsletter! Events that arrive in my email after the newsletter is produced will be posted on the web site calendar. This newsletter is a listing of accumulated and recurring events up to the time I send this out through my email list! Let me know if an event closes or does not occur—I'll take them off the listings. Much of this information comes from YOU!

Websites for good dancin' bands

Send me your ratings to the bands that YOU see!

★★★★	Great band—we want dance to almost anything they play!
★★★	Very good, we like dancing to them, but not everything
★★	OK music, but not the best for dancing
★	Music not that great, and we sit most of the time
No stars	Don't go!

Amy's ratings—high ratings are based on bands that play a variety of good dance tunes (if they play Latin or ballroom, that is a real plus!), good dance tempos and reasonable song times (I don't like 6 minute songs or medleys that include lots of songs with the same tempo!)

Fabulous Voices <http://www.facebook.com/FabulousVoices> or <http://sites.google.com/site/wwwfabvoices> A variety of dance music, including R&R, R&B, Latin, Blues, and Jazz. We dance West Coast swing, East Coast swing, Latin, hustle. I've known these guys since about 2003—they are my favorite Akron area band! We usually see them at the GetAway Pub Akron. Amy rating: ★★★★★

Cruisin'-- <http://www.thebandcruisin.com/>. We think this band is great! We listen to them a lot at Savannah's (they play there on many Sundays and Wednesdays) and Carrie Cerino's. Ron Howard has a great voice. Nearly everything they play is danceable—we have been able to West coast swing, East coast swing, hustle, cha cha, rumba, night club two-step! Amy rating: ★★★★★

Tony Koussa Jr. & Element Band <http://www.tonykoussa.com/> They specialize in many styles of music such as Rhythm & Blues, Jazz, Rock, Blues, Funk, and Fusion. Nearly everything they play is danceable—West/East Coast Swing, night club two-step, and occasionally hustle, rumba, and cha cha! Tony plays saxophone and guitar and has a smooth bluesy voice. Amy rating: ★★★★★

The Chozen Few Band <http://thechozenfewband.com/> This is a huge band—ten members. They have three vocalists, sax, conga drums, guitars, etc. They play hustle, Cha Cha, night club two-step and swing. This is a fun band with high energy! Amy rating: ★★★★★

Juke Hounds <http://www.thejukehounds.com> We heard this band at a private event and loved their sound! The vocals and instrumentals are great and perfect for west coast swing. Gerard, Bob, Mark and Jimmy are also the nicest of guys. We'll have to meet the rest of the band at another gig! As blues goes, sometimes the songs are a little long, but they are ultra cool! Amy rating: ★★★★★

Evil Ways Band <https://www.facebook.com/The-Evilways-Banda-tribute-to-the-music-of-Carlos-Santana-111795738845078/> or <http://www.evilwaysband.com/> This Santana tribute band played at Stringz & Wingz in Streetsboro—and they were great! A lot of cha cha, rumba and even merengue. OK, we also got in a hustle and east coast swing. There was a fabulous floor (and the food was good, too)!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Sammy DeLeon <https://www.facebook.com/sammydeleonorquestra> Latin jazz at its finest! If you like Latin jazz, you will enjoy listening or dancing. The pieces tend to be a bit long, but you can also listen first and then get up in the middle of the song to dance! They do a lot of salsa, but they also play cha cha, rumba, and merengue.

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Nitebridge <http://nitebridgeband.com/> They bill themselves as Motown, but they play great top pop hits as well. Ed and I saw them at the Music Box Supper Club (not much dance room) and thought they were great! They have different combinations of the band—we saw the 11 person band with four vocalists (all terrific) and sax and trumpet!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

The Benjaminz <http://www.thebenjaminz.com/> This is a high energy band that plays a wide variety of music, a lot of it with a hustle beat. Their vocals and instrumentals don't miss a beat! Ed and I heard them at a private company event and danced our feet sore!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

brokENGLISH <https://www.facebook.com/pages/BrokENGLISH-Band/473808842651776> and <http://dolinarspahija.com/dspahijayahoom/>. Ed and I enjoyed this band at Savannah's—they have great vocals and instrumentals. We did west and east coast swing, night club two-step, rumba, and could have done foxtrot if there was room on the dance floor!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Buck Naked Band <https://www.bucknakedband.com/> This is a modern country band that has a male and female vocalist and great instrumentals. Ed and I heard them at one of the Woodside Winter Concerts and danced west coast, nightclub two-step, country two-step and even a rumba! We really enjoyed their music and energy!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Whiskey Loco <https://www.facebook.com/WhiskeyLoco/> This is a high-energy modern country band with a strong male and female vocalist. Ed and I heard them at KC's Nashville Nights in Akron. We did west coast swing, hustle, night club two-step, and a country two-step. I would have danced more, but the floor was rockin' with up to 20 people! This is probably one of the best country bands in the area.

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Mustang Sally <http://www.mustangsallyband.com/> A mostly female country band with high energy! Ed and I heard them at Thirsty Cowboy—they also sing songs other than country, too. We did west and east coast swing and night club two-step!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Abby Normal and the Detroit Lean <http://www.abby-normal.org/> An 8-piece band (including a trombone, trumpet and sax) that plays rock, disco, swing, ska, and other genres. Ed and I heard them at Hooley House—they kicked up the energy in the room! We danced west and east coast, hustle, night club two-step and rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

JukeBox Heroes <http://www.jukeboxheroescleveland.com/> They bill themselves as a classic rock dance band, with much of the music from the 70's and 80's. They have great vocals (the lead singer does a great Steve Perry) and instrumentals. Ed and I did west coast and east coast swing, and night club step.

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Aretifex http://aretifex.com/contact_us_3.html A terrific dance band that plays R&B, disco, and rock. Ed and I saw them at Vosh. Victoria, the female vocalist does a mean Proud Mary! We did west coast swing, east coast swing, hustle, night club two-step and cha cha.

Amy rating: ★★★★★

The Caliber Band <http://www.thecaliberband.com/> A terrific county band with a strong female vocal. They are recognized as the top country band in Ohio, playing today's top 40 country music. Ed and I saw them at the Berea National Rib Cook-Off.

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Time Trax Band <http://www.timetraxband.com/>. Time Trax performs a large variety of dance music to satisfy nearly any audience. They can play 1950's & 60's Rock-N-Roll, 70's, Disco, 80's and today's current hits. Time Trax is known for their energetic performances, sharp stage attire and fabulous sound and light show. Ed and I heard them at the Berea Oktoberfest in 2007—a lot of really danceable music, and a huge variety!

Amy rating: ★★★★★

Lil Eddy and the Boilermakers <http://www.liledyandtheboilermakers.com/>. Lil Eddy himself added this recommendation! He says that they have a complete swing show, plus ad cha chas and mambo's! They are mainly based in the Akron area. Hey, Eddy, thanks for the web site! And, thanks Janice and Neil, for your rating!

Janice and Neil rating: ★★★★★

The Belairs <http://www.thebelairs.us/> This band plays a lot of 50's and 60's music (a lot of jitterbug). They play and mostly east side venues. Ed and I have not seen them, but Larry and Linda like them a lot! Mike, thanks for your interest in having your band listed!

Larry and Linda rating: ★★★★★

Run Avril Run <http://www.runavrilrun.com>. This is mostly an east-side Cleveland band, but they occasionally appear on the west-side. They are high-energy and have a great sound. They play pop/rock, disco, Motown, wedding standards, country, and classic rock. We heard them at Sly Fox, but they can also be seen at the Boneyard in Mayfield Heights and at special events.

Amy rating: ★★★

Lou Armagno and the Sinatra Selects <http://www.louarmagno.com/> Ah, he sounds just like Frank Sinatra! Of course, plenty of foxtrots, but also some rumba and swing. Ed and I heard him at Copperstone Catering and Event Center for a Valentine's Day show.

Amy rating: ★★★

Frank and Dean and Then Some www.theratpackandmore.com or <http://www.freewebs.com/scottbrotherton/theratpackandmore.htm> . These two guys dress up like Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin. They even joke around with each other like the ol' Rat Pack! We see them at Savannah's on Monday nights. Depending on how much floor space we get, Ed and I have managed to foxtrot, rumba, cha cha, mambo, West coast swing, East coast swing and night club two-step! We just recently saw them again for New Year's Eve at Brennan's—they even updated their jokes!

Amy rating: ★★★

Justo Saborit--<http://justosaborit.net/> They play Latin music, much of it with a samba back beat. Instrumentals are solid. Ed and I heard them at Thistledown Racino, where there were a lot of salsa dancers. We did samba, salsa, rumba, cha cha, and even got in a night club two step and west coast swing.

Amy rating: ★★★

The Diamond Project Band <http://www.thediamondprojectband.com/> If you love Neil Diamond, you will love this band. Lots of danceable tunes, and the lead singer sounds just like Neil Diamond! Ed and I have heard them at festivals and at Woodside. We dance swing, nightclub 2-step, rumba, and even a little foxtrot.

Amy rating: ★★★

Parrots of the Caribbean <https://potcband.com/> This band for for Jimmy Buffet fans! Lots of swing and rumba! Ed and I heard them at the Woodside Event Center. Make sure they play Cheeseburger in Paradise (they throw out an inflatable cheeseburger for the dancers to keep in the air).

Amy rating: ★★★

Stone Pony Band <http://www.stoneponyband.com/> They are a Bruce Springsteen tribute band. Ed and I heard them at the Cleveland Oktoberfest in Berea (2010)—a great solid sound and we could dance to almost every song (west coast, east coast, rumba, night club two-step). Looks like they also play at Scoundrels, Willoughby Brewing Company and a few other places.

Amy rating: ★★★

Velvet Shake <http://velvetshake.com/> High energy music covering songs by Lady Gaga, Katy Perry, Carrie Underwood, and Journey; also all of the music is danceable (well, we think so). Ed and I heard them at Scoundrels where we did hustle, west coast swing and night club two-step!

Amy rating: ★★★

Michelle Romary Band <http://www.michelleromary.com/> Music from Amy Winehouse, Alanis Morissette and other popular tunes, this band features a strong female vocalist (she also is the lead singer for pOUT) and tight instrumentals. We did east coast/west coast swing, hustle, rumba, night club two-step, cha cha, and even a mambo!

Amy rating: ★★★

pOUT http://www.poutband.com/fr_home.cfm This is a young energetic band that sings a variety of dance tunes, including contemporary hits. Ed and I heard them at the Italian American Festival in Berea. We did west coast swing, east coast swing, rumba, night club 2-step, and hustle!

Amy rating: ★★★

Jackpot <http://www.jackpotband.com/index.htm> Jackpot is a two-person band, but they pack a lot of sound and entertain with great danceable tunes! Ed and I heard them at one of Jackie's dances and were able to dance east/west coast swing, hustle, nightclub two-step, rumba, and cha cha!

Amy rating: ★★★

Rumplestiltskin <http://www.rumplestiltskinlive.com/13020.html> They play a lot at Independence Holiday Inn. They play Motown, disco, rock and pop. Ed and I saw them at the Slush Bar at JACK Thistledown Racino. They are the only band we know that does Cake by the Ocean. We did west and east coast swing, nightclub two-step, hustle, cha cha and rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

ALL-IN Country Band--<https://www.facebook.com/events/192732074202911/> Ed and I heard them at JACK Thistledown Racino. They have strong vocals and instrumentals; we did west coast, east coast, night-club two-step and even a waltz! You can also do country two-step. We really enjoyed their music selection!

Amy rating: ★★★

In Demand Band <https://www.gigmasters.com/cover-band/in-demand-band> Ed and I heard them at JACK Thistledown Racino. Their playlist includes Motown, R&B, contemporary (translation—west coast swing, east coast swing, hustle, night club two-step, rumba, cha cha). They did a great rendition of Purple Rain!

Amy rating: ★★★

Nomad Soul <https://www.facebook.com/nomadsoulband/> They are a classic rock and blues band that sings songs from the 60's to the 90's. Shannon is a great vocal lead, and the instrumentals are solid. Ed and I did west/east coast swing, night club 2-step, hustle, and rumba when we were at Southeast Gears and Cheers.

Amy rating: ★★★

Collage—The Band <https://www.reverbnation.com/collagetheband> This is a pop/80's/90's/current music band that we heard at the Cinco de Mayo Festival. They have solid vocals and instrumentals; they have a female and male vocalist, which makes them versatile in their song selection. They sing a lot of danceable songs for east coast/west coast swing, night club 2-step and probably other dances (we only heard them for an hour)!

Amy rating: ★★★

RadioActive <http://www.blairbands.com/ra> This is an energetic top 40 band that plays music from today, as well as the 70's, 80's, 90's and 00's. Ed and I did west coast swing, east coast swing, night club two-step, rumba, and cha cha. We heard them at Northeast Ohio Medical University's 40th year gala celebration!

Amy rating: ★★★

City Heat http://www.champagneent.com/band_cityheat.htm This band plays 60's, 70's, Motown, and R&B. They have solid instrumentals and a male and female vocalist, which makes them versatile in their song selection. We heard them at a private affair at Landerhaven!

Amy rating: ★★★

Rubix Cubed <http://rubixcubedcleveland.com/> This is an 80's band that Ed and I heard at Copperstone Catering and Event Center. They have a great song list! We danced hustle, swing, night club 2-step and others!

Amy rating: ★★★

Malt Shoppe Memories <https://msmohio.com/> If you like doo wop, you will really enjoy these melodies and harmonies of this group! Of course, there is a lot of swing, but also foxtrot, rumba, and nightclub two-step!

Amy rating: ★★★

Cocktail Johnny <http://cocktailjohnny.com/index.html> This is a rock band that Ed and I heard at Hooley House. They sing Journey, Train, Rolling Stones and other rock bands. The lead vocalist has a great voice; the tempos are great for dancing. We did east coast/west coast swing, night club two-step, hustle and rumba. We will be looking for other venues in which they play!

Amy rating: ★★★

Mystic Taxi <http://www.mystictaxiband.com/index.html> They bill themselves as an 80's dance and classic rock band. Ed and I heard them at Ace's in Middleburg Heights and enjoyed their high energy sound. Almost everything they sing is danceable (and we liked their song list, which includes Santana, Adele, Stevie Wonder and Joe Cocker!). We did west coast, east coast swing, night club two-step, hustle, and cha cha!

Amy rating: ★★★

Walk of Shame <http://walkofshameband.com/> This band plays popular songs from the 70's, 80's, 90's to now. Ed and I heard them at Hooley House and danced west/east coast swing, hustle, and night club two-step. They have solid vocals and instrumentals and have a great song list! By the way, they were given the "couples choice award" by WeddingWire in Pittsburgh (two consecutive years)!

Amy rating: ★★★

Charlie in the Box <http://www.charlieinthebox.com/> They are an 80's, 90's and today music band. Ed and I heard them at Hooley House in Brooklyn. We thought we could dance to almost everything they played. We did west coast/east coast swing, hustle, night club two-step and even cha cha!

Amy rating: ★★★

That 80s Band <http://www.ilovethat80sband.com> You guessed it—they play 80's music! We heard them at a neighborhood summer concert. Their tunes are danceable; they instrumentals are solid, and they have great female and male vocalists. We did swing, hustle and nightclub two-step.

Amy rating: ★★★

Gene Fiocca Band <http://www.genefioccaband.com/> Foxtrot, swing, and rumba tunes are the mainstays for this band. Ed and I heard them during the New Year's Eve bash at the Sheraton Suites in Cuyahoga Falls. Too bad the floor was small—a lot of folks were dancing!

Amy rating: ★★★

Midtown Band <https://www.facebook.com/pages/The-Midtown-Band/143534812486468?ref=stream> This is an energetic band that Ed and I heard at Savannah's. We danced hustle, east coast swing, west coast swing and nightclub two-step. They had the crowd filling the floor by the second set!

Amy rating: ★★★

Swamp Boogie Band <http://www.swampboogieband.com/> Blues, R&B, and rock. They were regulars at Savannah's and play a lot of West Coast swing, East Coast and night club two step.

Amy rating: ★★★

Spazmatics <http://www.spazmatics.org>. This is a high energy band that performs 80's music. The band members dress like nerds! Ed and I heard them at the Cleveland Oktoberfest (2008)—they had the crowd rockin'. They often play at the Loose Moose, Willoughby Brewing Company and Scoundrels.

Amy rating: ★★★

Shout! <http://www.shoutband.com/> Almost two bands in one—a Motown “Legends of Soul” set and songs from Big Band, R&B, Rock-n-Roll, Motown, 70's disco, Funk, 80's pop. They play a lot of different places and special events.

Amy rating: ★★★

Becky Boyd <http://www.beckyboydmusic.com/> We love the song “Sugar Cookie Man” which is a delightful foxtrot. Becky has a great voice, suited to jazz. We do mostly swing and night club two-step. We hear her at Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★★★

Sight-N-Sound <http://www.sightnsoundband.wordpress.com/> This seven person band features a female and male singer and includes a horn and sax! They put out a pretty good sound! They play a lot of Motown and R&B. We mostly did west coast swing, nightclub two-step and one rumba! They perform at Savannah's and east and west Cleveland.

Amy rating: ★★★

Raisin' Cain <http://www.raisincain.com/> We heard them at a New Year's event and at the Italian American festival in Berea. They play a variety of music from Motown to contemporary hits (dancing translation—Ed and I can dance Latin, swing and ballroom, depending on floor space!).

Amy rating: ★★★

Victory Highway <http://www.victoryhwy.com/> This band has a solid sound, playing classic rock, country, and dance/party music. Ed and I heard them at a neighborhood summer concert. We danced west coast and east coast swing, night club two-step, hustle, rumba and even a cha cha!

Amy rating: ★★★

Noël Quintana and the Latin Crew <http://www.thelatincrew.com/> Of course salsa, salsa, salsa and some cha cha, too! Ed and I heard them at the Cinco de Mayo festival. Their songs tend to be a bit long, so take a sip of water before you get started!

Amy rating: ★★★

Coalies Run <https://www.facebook.com/CoaliesRunBand/events> or <http://www.coaliesrun.com/> Great instrumentals, good vocals; they play a mix of country and rock/pop (including a very good Pink Floyd). Ed and I heard them at Parma Tavern—their tempos are very danceable. We did west and east coast swing, night club 2-step, country 2-step, and rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

Twist <http://www.twistmusic.com/> They bill themselves as a wedding band, so you know they play a huge variety of music! There are two shows—the Soul Revue Show who sing a lot of Motown and a couple of other singers, who sing more popular tunes. Ed and I heard them at a company event—we did rumba, west coast swing, east coast swing, hustle, night club two step...and even a quick-step!

Amy rating: ★★★

Eli's Coming <https://www.elis-coming.com/> This is a Three Dog Night tribute band (they also play songs from Chicago). Danceable! Ed and I heard them at the Woodside Event Center.

Amy rating: ★★★

Out Of Eden (and Just One Look) <http://outofedenohio.com/> This is an Eagles tribute band (and they also back up Just One Look, a Linda Ronstadt tribute band). We could dance to nearly every song they played! Ed and I heard them at the Woodside Event Center.

Amy rating: ★★★

Stiletto Overdrive <https://www.facebook.com/StilettoOverdrive> This is a pop/rock/dance band that Ed and I heard at the Grayton Road Tavern. Apparently they lost three band members in October, but provided a special performance this night. I do not know if they intend on continuing to schedule gigs, but we liked their mix of music. They have female and male vocalists, which increase the range of songs they can do. Ed and I did west and east coast swing, hustle, night club two-step and even a rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

Schoolgirl Crush <http://www.schoolgirlcrushband.com/> This is a fun band whose female vocalists dress up like naughty school girls. They have solid vocals/instrumentals and play a variety of great dance tunes. Ed and I heard them at Ace's in Middleburg Heights—we thought we could dance to most of their selections—east coast and west coast swing, night club two-step, hustle, and even rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

One Hit Wonders Band <https://www.facebook.com/theonehitwonderscleveland> Ed and I heard them at Scoundrels. They have a fun motif—a plastic ice cream cone sits on the stage in front of the performers. We heard songs that a lot of other bands do not perform, which we liked! Most of their selection is danceable—we did east coast swing, west coast swing, night-club two-step, rumba, and hustle.

Amy rating: ★★★

Abbey Rodeo <http://www.abbeyrodeo.com/> If you love mellow music from the 60's, you will love this band. They normally play on the east side, but we heard them at Hooley House in Brooklyn. They play a lot of rumba tempos and swing. Their vocals were reminiscent of the artists of the 60's, and they play songs that we had not heard others play.

Amy rating: ★★★

147 Band <http://www.147band.com/> They play top 40, Motown and rock and roll—high energy! Ed and I heard them at Southeast Gears and Cheers—we danced west coast/east coast swing, night club 2-step, and a lot of hustle.

Amy rating: ★★★

LaFlavour <http://www.laflavour.com/> They play a lot of songs with a disco beat, so it's hustle, hustle, hustle. Sometimes, they string lots of songs with the same disco beat together (exhausting, if you like to dance until the music stop!)! They have a great solid sound and are a fun band (especially the song Mandolay, which was a hit back in the day). They used to play at festivals, the Holiday Inn at Rockside, 365th Fighter Group, and lots of other places! However, Ed and I heard them at Woodside January 2019, and they have expanded their range of songs, including the Steve Miller band, Beatles, swing, and many other genres of music!

Amy rating: ★★★

The Attraxxion <http://www.theattraxxion.com/> Ed and I heard them at Hooley House, and we know they are a featured band at Brennan's New Year's Eve event. Also, we recently heard them at Legend's in Parma. They are an 80's cover band with solid instrumentals and vocals. There is a lot of rock and roll, most of which is danceable!

Amy rating: ★★★

Pieces of Eight <http://www.piecesofeightband.net/> Ed and I heard them at Hooley House. Although they only had 6 members that night (they were missing their trumpet and sax player), they put on an entertaining show. We did east and west coast swing, night club two-step, hustle, and even a rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

Breakfast Club <http://www.clevelandsbreakfastclub.com/main.htm> An 80's band with a solid sound—we originally heard them at the Oktoberfest. We have danced west coast and east coast swing, nightclub two-step and even a rumba to this band. We saw them recently at the Cinco de Mayo Festival, and a couple of their band members appear to have changed—they didn't seem to be as energetic, but the crowd was a bit sparse.

Amy rating: ★★★

Pompous Ass <http://www.myspace.com/pompousassband> They play 60's to country. Ed and I heard them at Savannah's. almost everything they played was danceable (we especially liked Walkin' in Memphis!).

Amy rating: ★★★

Wallace Coleman Band <http://www.wallacecoleman.com/>. He plays a Chicago style blues which is great for West Coast Swing. Ed and I have heard him at a now closed bar a while ago, but haven't seen him around lately.

Amy rating: ★★★

Blue Eyed Soul Band <http://www.theblueeyedsoulband.com/> They play Beach Boys, Rascals, Jason Mraz, Big and Rich, Sam & Dave—a wide variety of music! Ed and I heard them at Scoundrel's and danced swing, night club two-step, hustle, and even a rumba.

Amy rating: ★★★

Chauncey Shives band <http://chaunceyshives.com/> Classified as southern rock, they play west coast swing, east coast swing, night club two-step, and we even danced a hustle and rumba! They have good instrumentals and an interesting variety of songs.

Amy rating: ★★★

Code Blue <http://www.codeblueohio.com/> They are a blues band (mostly fast blues); they have great instrumentals. We saw them on Southeast Gears and Cheers' patio. Ed and I did west coast swing, east coast swing and night club two-step!

Amy rating: ★★★

Cool Breeze <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Cool-Breeze-Band/104087282982500> They play 70's and 80's classic rock. Ed and I heard them at Catalina West. Their tempos are danceable—we did swing, night club two-step and hustle. Good vocals and solid instrumentals.

Amy rating: ★★★

The GeezeCats <http://www.geezecats.com/> This is a fun band that plays lively oldies tunes—a lot of East coast swing! They have a shtick where they decorate that stage like your grandmother's living room filled with cats and even have some "costume" changes. We see them a lot at Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★★★

Ace Molar <http://www.acemolar.com/>. Ace Molar is a high octane rock-n blues band featuring Todd Meany (from Fox8 News in the morning) performing danceable hits from great artists like J. Geils Band, Rolling Stones, Blues Brothers, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Wilson Pickett and other artists. We heard them with Bob and Linda and Dan and Phyllis at the Lampliter Lounge in Parma Heights—and they do play very danceable music!

Amy rating: ★★★

DT and the Shakes-- <http://dtandtheshakes.com> They play popular rock and roll—lots of east coast and west coast swing. Vocals and instrumentals are solid. If you see them, say "hi" to my friend Bill (bass player)!

Amy rating: ★★★

Backroads Band--<http://www.backroadsbandohio.com/> Ed and I heard them at Thirsty Cowboys in Medina. They play country music (including your line dance favorites!). We do not line dance, but did do west/east coast swing, night club two-step, hustle, and even a rumba! Some of the vocals were a little weak, but the instrumentals were thumping!

Amy rating: ★★★

The Usual Suspects This band has a great song selection—contemporary music that is danceable, such as Bruno Mars, Adele, etc. They have solid vocals and instrumentals. We heard them at Hooley House in Brooklyn and danced west and east coast swing, night club two-step and rumba!

Amy rating: ★★★

Sunset Strip-- <http://www.billymorrisband.com/> A lot of rock—these guys have long hair! Ed and I heard them at Hooley House in Brooklyn and did west coast/east coast, hustle, and nightclub two-step!

Amy rating: ★★

Real Deal Blues Band <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Real-Deal-Blues-Band/245919988772515> This band plays blues and rock with a blues flavor. Ed and I heard them at Sassy's—we did west coast and east coast swing, night club two-step, and even a rumba! Solid vocals and instrumentals; they have a great guitar player. Some of the songs are a bit long, but that's blues!

Amy rating: ★★

Sloppy Joe Band-- <http://www.sloppyjoeband.net/> This is a classic rock, blues, and R&B band. Ed and I heard them at Savannah's. They have good solid sound and good instrumentals. We did mostly east coast and west coast swing, but also a few other dances as well!

Amy rating: ★★

Kentucky Thunder <https://www.facebook.com/Kentucky-Thunder-187203714758666/> This is a country band (but curiously enough, it didn't seem like the band members had southern drawls!). We did a lot of swing (mostly west coast), nightclub two-step and a country two-step! They were playing a Wild Billy's Bar and Grill when we heard them.

Amy rating: ★★

Qwik Sil-ver <http://www.reverbNation.com/qwiksilver> A jazz band with great instrumentals and vocalist with a smooth low bluesy voice! We heard them under muted circumstances (they were told not to play very loudly) at the 100th Bomber Group Restaurant, so we did not hear them at their fullest sound. However, if there was a good dance floor, (the band was moved inside to a carpeted lounge due to rain), we would have been able to dance at least 5-6 different kinds of dances!

Amy rating: ★★

Intrigue <https://www.facebook.com/Intrigue-479918632091261/> They play a lot of Fleetwood Mac, but also Pink, Janis Joplin, and other female artists. Danceable tempos and good female vocalist. We heard them at A&J's Pub and Grub.

Amy rating: ★★

Lost State of Franklin <http://www.loststateoffranklin.com/LSOF/home.html> Ed and I heard them at the Cuyahoga County Fair. They play bluegrass and country music. We were able to do foxtrot, west and east coast swing, night club two-step and polka. However, we could not figure out what to do to that fast bluegrass music (I do not have a pair of clogging shoes!). We enjoyed their solid vocals and instruments. Scott sometimes plays two horns at once!

Amy rating: ★★

People Behaving Badly <https://www.facebook.com/pbbbband/info> They play everything from Artful Dodger (remember them?) to Johnny Rivers to ZZ Top. Ed and I heard them at the Berea National Rib Cook-Off.

Amy rating: ★★

Teaser <http://www.teaserlive.com/> This is a rock band that Ed and I heard at Parma Tavern. Some of it is danceable; they have a solid sound—good instrumentals and vocals (although the lead singer mostly yells, in rock fashion!)

Amy rating: ★★

Faction <http://www.factioncleveland.com/> Billed as Fox8 Hotlist's top 5 local band in 2011, they play current pop, 80's and alternative rock. These guys sound solid and are good vocalists. However, Ed and I had to choose our dances "creatively" because they sang a lot of hip hop while we were at Soundrel's. Their playlist shows that they have a wide range of great songs!

Amy rating: ★★

Redneck Incorporated <http://www.redneckinmusic.com/> A good country band, although sometime the vocals get a little pitchy. They play lot of Jason Aldean and other country greats as well as non-country music. They have a great female fiddler and play a variety of great tunes! Ed and I heard them at the Berea National Rib Cook-Off.

Amy rating: ★★

Fletch and the Catch <http://www.fletchandthecatch.com/> or on Facebook http://www.facebook.com/pages/Fletch-and-the-Catch/288761746371?sk=app_2309869772 They play a lot of blues and southern rock—we last heard them at Savannah's. We didn't dance to everything (we got in some west coast swing, night club two-step and even a cha cha!), but the vocals and instrumentals are solid. The songs tend to be somewhat long, but they are a pretty good listening band!

Amy rating: ★★

Funkology Band-- <http://funkologycleveland.com/> Great beat and song selection. The horn section allows them to do Chicago and Earth, Wind and Fire songs! We got in a cha cha, rumba, west coast swing, east coast swing, night club two-step, and of course, hustle! They could use stronger vocals, but otherwise inspired some fun dancing! We saw them as Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★★

Disco Inferno <http://www.discoinfernoband.com/> . I finally got to hear these guys at the Cleveland Oktoberfest (2010). They wear funky 70's costumes and play a great disco beat! Ed and I didn't listen long, but the music seems all 70's. Anyone remember the line dance to "Do the hustle?" These guys do!

Amy rating: ★★

Just Jazz <http://www.justjazzcleveland.com/> They sing foxtrot, rumba, cha cha, nightclub 2-step, and even tango! They had good instrumentals, but the vocalists were sometimes pitchy. Ed and I heard them at Southeast Gears and Cheers.

Amy rating: ★★

Tom Frietchen Band <http://tomfrietchenband.com/> A country band that features their original song Just You and Me, which reached #1 on iHeartRadio. Ed and I heard them at the Berea National Rib Cook-Off. They sometimes got a bit pitchy with their vocals, but the music was very danceable!

Amy rating: ★★

The Cavor Project <https://www.reverbnation.com/thecavorproject> They play R&B, soul, smooth jazz, and hip hop. Ed and I heard them at JACK Thistledown Racino Slush Bar. Great instrumentals, but the songs were long. We enjoyed listening but found it difficult to do much dancing.

Amy rating: ★★

Cruisemasters <http://thecruisemasters.net/> They actually have a pretty good songlist. However, for some reason, Ed and I just don't feel inspired to do much dancing to this band—is it the energy level? There seems to be a bit of chit chat between songs. We hear them at Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★★

Armstrong Bearcat Band <http://www.armstrongbearcat.com/> A blues band that tends to play long songs! We mostly dance swing, but often end up sitting. We mostly see them at Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★★

The Feedbacks <https://www.facebook.com/The-Feedbacks-119357268112288/> They play rock--instrumentals were fine, but they did not have the "tightest" sound. A guest female singer really enhanced the vocals, though! Ed and I heard them at Savannah's—we could dance to most of their songs, but were not especially inspired.

Amy rating: ★★

Clayton Brother Band <https://www.facebook.com/The-Clayton-Brothers-Band-15908883077261/> They list themselves as "primitive rock and roll"—a lot of the music is from the 60's (east coast swing and same tempo). They are fun guys—we heard them at Doc and Louie's in North Olmsted.

Amy rating: ★★

Colin Dussault's Blues Project <http://www.colindussault.com/>. Sometimes depends on the mood they are in—a lot of West Coast swing when they are playing blues. They have a big following, so the dance floor often fills up! Regulars at Savannah's and other places.

Amy rating: ★★

Eddie and the Edsels <http://www.eddieandtheedsels.com/> This is an oldies band that I used to really enjoy, but thought they were lacking energy the last time I saw them. They are a great oldies band, but we hear that they are branching out to other kinds of music. They play mostly swing. They are regulars at Carrie Cerino's and Savannah's (on Mondays).

Amy rating: ★★

Big in Japan <http://www.biginjapanband.com/> Three guys playing music from the 80's to current times. They play a bit too much head banging music for us (also the speaker system had the drums way too loud!). Ed and I did do some east coast and west coast swing and hustle. We heard them at Hooley House.

Amy rating: ★★

Teaser Band <http://www.teaserlive.com/> A band that has been around since the late 1970's! They play rock—good instrumentals and solid vocals (although the singing is a bit of yelling—his vocal cords probably need a rest after a gig!). We enjoyed listening to them, but did not do a lot of dancing. We heard them at Parma Tavern.

Amy rating: ★★

The Stone River Band

<http://www.thestoneriverband.com/acorn.php?page=home>. A 60's/70's band that plays a lot of cool music, if you like is listen. A lot of dancers didn't think they played much danceable stuff (including me and Ed). We heard them at Savannah's.

Amy rating: ★

NON-LOCAL BANDS

die Schlauberger <http://www.dsbworld.com/> For a polka band, this is a great band! Ed and I, of course, heard them at the Berea Oktoberfest in 2012. The band is composed of seven guys that have great strong vocals and musical talent (a combination of rock and roll meets alpine). We did foxtrot, mambo, east coast swing and polka!

VENUE RATINGS

Ratings for places to dance

New feature!

Send me your ratings to venues where YOU dance!

★★★★	Great venue—floor is sizeable (can comfortably fit at least 10 couples), favorable dance conditions, music usually good; has extras like good food, service, ambience, and a great crowd
★★★	Very good—floor is favorable for dancing (at least 6-10 couples) and music is good; may lack in “extras”
★★	OK venue—has some of the extras, but the floor is not very big
★	Desperation venue—only go if there is nothing else around!
No stars	Don't go!

A & J's Pub and Grub—3415 Brookpark Rd, Parma, OH 44134; 216-801-4771. Another place that moves tables around to allow room for dancing. Enough space for a few people to dance. Really cheap beer prices ($5 for a short and tall)! They serve food, but we did not eat anything, so I cannot make a comment. Amy rating: ★★ (visited February 2016)

Aces Grille—6847 Pearl Rd., Middleburg Heights, OH 44130, 440-845-1800; also 32650 Lorain Rd., North Ridgeville, OH 44039, 440-327-3333; <http://www.acesgrille.com/> . They move tables around to create a dance floor. Stone cobbled floor that got a bit sticky, but the food was good (try the calzones!) and there was room to dance! There is a North Ridgeville and Middleburg Heights location (we have been to both—both locations have dance floor space!). Both floor conditions are about the same.

Amy rating: ★★★ (Middleburg Heights location first visited July 2013; North Ridgeville location visited sometime in 2012)

The Boneyard Beer Farm & Mesquite Grill-- 101 East Royalton Road, Broadview Hts., OH 44147; 440-717-WING; <http://www.boneyardusa.com/> Odd concrete dance floor in front of the band (dancers on the same level as the band). Actually, there isn't a designated dance floor; however, there is space for 6-8 couples to dance between the band and the pool tables. They have mostly rock bands here. We did not have any food (fly-by dancing—we put our coats on one of the pool tables and danced to a few songs until the break and then left).

Amy rating: ★★ (visited November 2012)

Brew House Bar & Grill—6395 Pearl Rd., Parma Heights, OH 44130; 440-345-5815; <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Brew-House-Bar-Grill/551013911641490>. Tried visiting—didn't make it in the door because it was too busy!

Brothers Lounge, 11609 Detroit Ave., Cleveland, OH 44102-2342; 216-226-2767. <http://www.brotherslounge.com/> They have live entertainment many nights of the week. This is a cool venue for beer, wine and martini. The stage is great for the band, but the beautiful wooden floor is usually covered with tables ☹️ . If anyone has encountered a better dance floor, let me know!

Amy rating: ★ (visited, umm, can't remember, long time ago)

Carrie Cerino's-- 8922 Ridge Road, North Royalton, OH 44133; 440-237-3434, <http://www.carriecerinos.com/Events/LoungeBands.aspx> Nice wood dance floor downstairs with good bands every Friday and Saturday; usually attracts a lot of dancers. Good food, too! Generally gets pretty crowded. Ed is not fond of the crowded floor, even though it can probably fit >10 couples. We have not been there for several years.

Amy rating: ★★★ (can't remember the last time I've been there!)

C Mulligan's Pub-- 6450 Pitts Blvd, North Ridgeville, OH 44039; (440) 327-9108. A bit of a hole in the wall; the floor in front of the band that could comfortably fit about 6 couples, unless the band spreads out their equipment over the floor. They were not serving food when we got there. The crowd was nice, and we liked the band! We don't think they served any food.

Amy rating: ★★ (last visited April 2013)

Fairview Tavern--21867 Lorain Rd Cleveland, OH 44126; (440) 799-4200; <http://thefairviewtavern.com/> They often have good live bands here, so Ed and I thought we'd visit. Unfortunately, there really is no dance floor (although a few people dance in a teeny space that is really a passage from the kitchen to the dining area! The food was delicious and the wait staff was very nice. However, because of the lack of dance floor, I really can't recommend this venue as a good dance restaurant. However, if you like great food and great music, then this is a great place!

Amy rating: ★ (last visited February 2013)

Fat Little Buddies-- 26906 Cook Road Olmsted, OH 44138; (440) 235-1338; <http://www.fatlittlebuddies.com/> A hole in the wall, but a good size (vinyl?) dance floor for a bar in the back room (but little seating)—about an 8 couple floor. One of our favorite bands (Bradford White) plays here—we couldn't find a seat, so we danced to a break and left. We didn't try any of the food. A bit of a weird atmosphere (OK, maybe it was a bit late, and people had been drinking a while). Amy rating: ★★ (visited spring 2012)

The GetAway Pub—1462 North Portage Path, Akron, OH 44313; 330-867-8700; <http://www.thegetawaypub.com/> Looks like a hole in the wall, but they have a good space for a band and a wooden dance floor (6-8 couple)! The food is OK; not too much seating. Come early; it gets crowded. Ed and I only come here when our favorite Akron area band, the Fabulous Voices, play here. Otherwise, I do not recognize the other bands that play here. Amy rating: ★★ (last visited spring 2013)

Grayton Road Tavern—4760 Grayton Road, Cleveland, OH 44135; 216-265-7770; <http://www.graytonroadtavern.com/>. No designated dance floor, but there is space to dance (maybe 2-3 couples) on the smooth concrete floor. The food was great—Ed thought his burger was one of the best that he has had; the wait staff was friendly. The night that we visited, The Ohio State University football game delayed the band start time, and a huge birthday party occupied most of the tables. The acoustics of the venue were not the most conducive to bands (it was difficult to understand the lyrics because the sound bounced off of the high ceilings and walls). However, we plan to go back! Amy rating: ★★ (first visited September 2013)

Grindstone Tap House (used to be Scoundrel's Bar & Grill)-- 826 Front Street Berea, OH 44017; (440) 234-3455; <http://www.grindstonetaphouse.com/> The wood dance floor is maybe 10 x 18 feet; up to about 8 couples on the floor. We have not been there since they changed their name, but they do still have bands! Amy rating: ★★★ (visited December 2014)

Hard Rock Rocksino Northfield Park, Cafe—10777 Northfield Road, Northfield, OH 44067, 330-908-7625; <https://www.hrrocksinonorthfieldpark.com/entertainment.htm>. They have live bands (head straight back to the café from the north parking entrance. Great stage and sound system, but no dance floor ☹️ Their food looks good, and Brian (our waiter) said that sometimes people dance in the aisles. We missed Club Velvet—apparently some bands entertain there; not sure if there is a dance floor. Amy rating: ★ (visited January 2015)

Hofbrauhaus Cleveland—1550 Chester Ave., Cleveland, OH 44115. If you like German food and beer, this is the place for you. They have many polka bands entertaining and loud raucous crowds. Unfortunately, there is not a lot of room to dance (but Ed and I found some space!). This place gets crowded quickly on the weekends, so make reservations! Amy rating: ★★ (visited January 2016)

Holiday Inn Cleveland/Independence--6001 Rockside Road, Independence, OH 44131; 216-524-8050. Great wood dance floor with dance bands playing Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. It gets crowded on Friday and Saturday; however, the dancers come on Wednesday and Thursday—a lot of swing and hustle. It is being newly renovated during January 2014.

Amy rating: ★★★ (last visited 12/26/13)

Hooley House, Brooklyn--10310 Cascade Crossing Brooklyn, OH 44144; (216) 362-7700; <http://www.1funpub.com/> This was the old Don Pancho's. There is a wooden floor that they have to shift tables to create a dance floor when they have bands. A night that we went in 2012, there was room for maybe three couples; however, there was no seating (a large party was occupying the dining room), so we did not stay. Upon a return visit, the floor had room for 6-8 couples to fit comfortably on the floor. The floor was wood, but was "sticky" for dancing—turning is difficult. I had the spinach salad, which was great! The serving staff was excellent!

Amy rating: ★★★ (first visited March 2014; go here often)

Hooley House Westlake—24940 Sperry Dr., Westlake, OH 44145; 440-835-2890. A different layout than the Brooklyn Hooley House; their dance floor is smaller—may be enough for two couples. Ed and I enjoyed the band and the food, but we didn't dance.

Amy rating: ★★ (last visited May 2014 and in December 2015)

KC's Nashville Nights—88 W. Wilbeth Rd., Akron, 44301; 330-724-7541; <https://www.facebook.com/Kcs-Nashville-Nights-352193908219750/> a triangular floor that would fit four couple comfortably; however, there were 16-20 people through a good part of the night that we visited! Mostly a beer crowd, they also serve cheap food (you have to go to the back of the bar by the restrooms to order). They host a lot of country bands, but also other music (they had a Rush tribute band the following week).

Amy rating: ★★★ (visited February 2016)

Kenilworth Tavern II—33382 Walker Rd., Avon Lake, OH 44012. They have a nice floor that could fit at least 6 couples comfortably—just the right amount of slipperiness (sometimes swing dancers like to spread wax on the floor—this floor didn't need it!). We were there during a charity function, so it was quite busy. The food was okay, but reasonably priced.

Amy rating: ★★★ (visited November 2014)

Legends Sports Bar and Grill—8735 Day Drive, Parma, OH 44129; 440.481.3421; <http://legendssportsbargrill.com> We are thrilled that Grayton Road Tavern's owner opened up another spot—this place has ample parking and the same great menu items! But there is also a pretty big dance floor! They have live music on Friday and Saturdays (band play 9 p.m.-1 a.m.). They only problem when we were there was that the floor was sticky!

Amy rating: ★★★ (visited June 2019)

Otani Restaurant and Pub—180 West Streetsboro St., Hudson, OH 44236; 330-656-0012; <http://www.otanihudson.com/> Great wood dance floor—just the right amount of "slide" for our shoes; except it is small. The bands play in the bar area, but they can move the tables. However, if there are a lot of people in the bar, they stand around on the dance floor! We ate dinner with John and Yan—the food was tasty. We enjoyed the lively crowd. Apparently bands entertain every Saturday.

Amy rating: ★★ (visited March 2014)

Panini's Bar and Grill--8870 Darrow Rd, Twinsburg, OH 44087; (330) 963-0095; www.paninisgrill.com/locations/twinsburg/ A bit of an odd set up for bands—the stage faces a small area of the restaurant, and the sight lines to watch the band for other patrons is poor. The staff clears tables to provide space for a dance floor (it is wood!). The menu is extensive and the food is good. Ed and I saw Cocktail Johnny on the night of our visit. After they cleared three tables, about 6-8 people could fit on the dance floor (although you would need to depend on people to vacate the tables before they make room on the floor!).

Amy rating: ★★★ (visited 5/10/14)

The Parkview NiteClub--1261 West 58th Street, Cleveland, OH; 216-961-1341; <http://www.parkviewniteclub.com/>. Located at the end of West 58th, 3 blocks north of Detroit Avenue; parking in the street. They have bands on Saturdays and decent bar food, too (with a great wait staff)! Unfortunately, they have a postage stamp-sized floor—too bad, because they have good bands here!

Amy rating: ★ (it's been a long time since we've been there)

Parma Tavern--5680 Broadview Road, Parma, OH 44134; 216-635-1800; <http://www.parma-tavern.com/> A slate tile dance floor that can fit 4-6 couples (if they move the tables). They have live bands or DJ every Friday or Saturday. The food and service was good; the people were nice!

Amy rating: ★★ (last visited May 2013)

Rav's Creekside Tap and Grill--9224 Darrow Rd., Twinsburg, OH; 330-425-3435; <http://ravscreekside.biz/> A small dance surface (2-3 couples), but they have good food (we like the chicken fajita salad). We have heard the Benjaminz here twice! The staff and customers are nice, too (and we meet friends here).

Amy rating: ★★ (last visited 5/10/13)

Round House Bar— Delaware Ave, Put-in-Bay, OH 43456; (419) 285-2323; <http://www.theroundhousebar.com/>. We heard the Bluff Canucks (Ed knows the drummer) on a chilly Saturday afternoon (the ferry ride was nauseating because the wind rocked the boat!). There was a great crowd, but the floor space was small—some people (including us) did find some space to dance!

Amy rating: ★★ (last visited 5/3/14)

Sassy's Bar & Grille--10755 Ravenna Rd., Twinsburg, OH; 330-998-6529; <http://www.sassysbarandgrille.com/>. This is a really friendly place with pretty good food. The floor is a bit small, but there is some room to dance! Ed and I were there on a quiet night to hear the Juke Hounds (they sounded great, by the way—get their new CD Bluesitude), which meant the entire floor was ours!

Amy rating: ★★ (visited August 2014)

South East Gears & Cheers Restaurant and Bar-- 23333 Aurora Road, Bedford Heights, OH 44146; 440-232-0029; <http://segearsandcheers.com/> We heard the Benjaminz and ate dinner. They have good food and friendly staff. There is a floor in front of the band that fit several couples—we had a great time dancing! Bands start at 9 p.m. They have an outdoor patio that is used in the summer, so dancing is on concrete when the weather is nice.

Amy rating: ★★ (first visited March 2014; visits throughout 2016)

Thirsty Cowboy--2743 Medina Rd Medina, OH 44256; (330) 722-5400; <http://www.thirstycowboys.com/> Ed and I visited last fall—they have a huge wood floor! Line dancing is taught every Wednesday (starts at 7:30 p.m.), and they have bands on Friday and Saturday. We saw Caliber Band there (we also saw them at the Ribfest last year). I do not know how the food was, since we did not eat there; however, the menu is reasonably priced! The people were nice, too. There is a charge for some of the entertainment (at least there was a cover charge when we went; it was $5). By the way, they also have a mechanical bull, for those of you who would like to try...

Amy rating: ★★★★★ (visited September 2012, visits throughout 2016)

Thistledown Racino, Slush Bar—21501 Emery Rd., Cleveland, OH 44128; 216.662.9600; <http://www.thistledown.com/dining/slush-bar.html#.VKM0nCcBg> You have to walk to the far right-hand corner of the facility from the entrance to get to the Slush Bar. They have events most nights of the week including line dancing (usually Monday and Wednesday at 7 p.m.), ballroom dancing (usually on Thursdays at 7 p.m.), and live bands Saturdays at 9 p.m. and a DJ on Fridays at 8 p.m. There is a concrete floor, but it is relatively large. We have not eaten food there, but they do provide water and some soft drinks for free, and of course alcoholic slushies!

Amy rating: ★★★★★ (visited December 2014)

Train Station Bar—424 E. River St., Elyria, OH 44035; 440-322-9503; <http://www.trainstationbar.com/> We came here to listen to a band. It is very cramped and crowded; they serve drinks, but do not have a menu. The dance floor space was very small (parquet wood floor). We were not inspired to dance! They do seem to have a good list of bands, but we would not come here to dance.

Amy rating: ★ (last visited March 2014)

Vosh Club--1414 Riverside Dr., Lakewood, Ohio 44107; 216-767-5202; voshkwd@gmail.com; <http://voshclub.com/> Vosh just opened in March 2013. They say that “the club will feature Jazz, Blues, Motown and more.” They have a substantial stage for bands with cool disco lights; the dance floor looks like it could accommodate about 8 couples? In April, Ed and I poked our heads in the door—there was a cover charge, but nowhere to sit! We did not stay. However, the band sounded good; the dress code is a little more upscale than most of the bars with bands. OK, so we went back in May to hear the band Artefix (great band, by the way). The dance floor could fit about 8-10 couples—but it was a hard marble. Also, we did not think the people were very friendly; the server took our drinks from the table before we were finished (we were on the dance floor to come back to the table and found our table cleaned off even though our coats were still on our chairs!). Drinks are expensive, the food selections are limited, and the kitchen closes at 10:30 p.m.

Amy rating: ★★ (visited May 2013)

Water Street Tavern—132 S. Water St., Kent, OH 44240; 330-677-0700. One of those cozy bars in Kent with $2 beers during happy hour. They have bands, but little floor space in front of the bar, although there is some room behind the bar. Food is cheap and good, from Mr. Zub’s—a hole in the wall right in the bar! Ed and I heard DT and the Shakes here!

Amy rating: ★ (visited July 2015)

West Park Station-- 17015 Lorain Avenue Cleveland, OH 44111 (Kamm's Corners, Cleveland); (216) 476-2000; <http://www.westparkstation.com/> Ed and I came to hear a band; after we found a couple of chairs, no one came to ask if we wanted anything to eat or drink. We left before the band started. The dance floor was very small anyway. The patrons were very young; it was very crowded.

Amy rating: ★ (visited September 2012)

Willoughby Brewing Company (Friday & Saturday) -- 4057 Erie Street Willoughby, Ohio; 440-975-0202; <http://willoughbybrewing.com/entertainment/>. They have a big wood dance floor in front of the band (>10 couple floor), but more deep than wide (rather odd). Good bands every Friday and Saturday. The food is good, but the seating is away from the band. Hard to find a good place to sit and listen.

Amy rating: ★★★ (visited several years ago)

UNRATED (because I haven't been there; but could be promising)
If you go to any of these venues, let me know YOUR rating!

Jewels Dance Hall—1770 Mill Street, Austinburg, OH 44010 (Ashtabula County); 440-275-5332; <http://jewelsdancehallandsaloon.com/index.html> . Live bands and dancing on Fridays and Saturdays, 9:30 p.m.-1:30 a.m. Also, line dancing lessons 6:30-9:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. They say they are Ohio's oldest dance hall (est. 1930).

Jilly's Music Room--111 North Main Street, Akron, OH 44308 (used to be Northside); <http://www.jillysmusicroom.com>. The Juke Hounds really like playing at this new venue and encouraged us to see them at their next gig there!

Kickin' Kountry--10997 St Rt 212 NE, Bolivar OH 44612; 330-354-8129. Open Mon thru Sat, 6:30 pm to 2:00 am. See Calendar for details. <http://www.kickinkountry.net/calendar.htm>; Map. For those of you closer to Bolivar than Cleveland—here's a venue for ballroom and line dance lessons and general dancing.

The Lake Club—1140 Paulin Rd., Poland, OH 44514; 330-549-3996; <http://www.thelakeclubohio.com/> The will be having Friday night bands over the summer!

Mon Ami Restaurant and Historic Winery—3845 E. Wine Cellar Rd., Port Clinton, OH 43452; 419-797-4445; info@monamiwinery.com; <http://www.monamiwinery.com/> . Friday and Saturday bands play 9 p.m.- 1 a.m.; Sunday bands play 2-6 p.m. Check out the band listing <http://www.monamiwinery.com/entertainment.htm>

Nazca Restaurant and Bar—4620 Richmond Rd., #296, Warrensville Heights, OH 44128; 216-378-9800; <https://www.facebook.com/NazcaRestaurantBar/>. I hear they have a large dance floor!

DANCE TIPS FORUM:

Okay—this is a new feature to this newsletter. Occasionally, people ask questions about dancing. I thought it might be worth getting your two cents about this question. Email me with your tips! I'd like to add YOUR two cents, too!

“How do you decide what dance to do when you hear music?”

- Amy’s two cents:
 1. Ask yourself what kind of dances can you do?
 2. Then, ask yourself, does this music “fit”* into any kind of the dances that you do?
 3. Then, count to see if the tempo is suited to the dance that you think might fit. Do you think you can dance it at that speed?
 4. If yes, then, dance it!
 5. Alternate plan: see what other people are dancing and do what looks good to you!

*”Fit” means whether or not the character of the music fits the character of the dance:

Dance	General character	Songs
East coast swing	Happy, bouncy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Many Beach Boys songs • Pink Cadillac (Springsteen) • Some Kind of Wonderful (Huey Lewis & the News)
Hustle	Think disco! Driving beat with a flowing melody	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Donna Summers songs • Get Down Tonight (Kool and the Gang) • Can’t Get You Out of My Head (Kylie Minogue)
Night club two-step	“Prom” music; slow, romantic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When a Man Loves a Woman (Percy Sledge) • Almost Paradise (Ann Wilson/Mike Reno) • Lady in Red (Chris DeBurgh)
Rumba	Latin, sensual	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dream Lover (Bobby Darin) • Amado Mio (Pink Martini) • My Maria (Brookes and Dunn)
Waltz	3/4 time; wistful; slower than Viennese Waltz	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Come Away With Me (Norah Jones) • Sandy’s Song (Dolly Parton) • Tennessee Waltz (Anne Murray)
West coast swing	Bluesy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Black Velvet (Alannah Myles) • Follow Me (Uncle Kracker) • You Can Leave Your Hat On (Joe Crocker)
Salsa/mambo	Latin, lively	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mambo #5 (Lou Bega) • Micaela (Sonora Carruseles) • Maracaibo Oriental (Beny More)
Cha Cha	Latin, slower,” cha cha cha” rhythm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Smooth (Santana) • Let’s Get Loud (Jennifer Lopez) • I Need to Know (Marc Anthony)
Foxtrot	4/4 time; happy; flows	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Frank Sinatra songs • A Fine Romance (Ella Fitzgerald) • I’m Beginning to See the Light (Bobby Darin)

Dance Tips and Etiquette by Jeanne Eisenhut

“Dressing for dancing” (posted 8/7/15)

I was very fortunate recently to be attending a swing dance event and to be seated with several friends who have been dancing for some time. As we watched the many couples on the floor and noted the various outfits that the followers had chosen for the day, we compiled a list of suggestions, not rules, btw, that we'd like to share. Later, I consulted with some leaders and added a few items to our list.

1. And this is numero uno with most leaders: jewelry selection. Be careful when choosing your jewelry, followers, as many leaders have been belted in the face with long necklaces, particularly those with a heavy piece at the end. I've seen necklaces literally swing around the lady's neck, almost "klunking" a nearby dancer as well as her partner, who ducked out of the danger zone. Bracelets and big watches can make the wrist hard or awkward to grasp. Large stones (if you're lucky to have them) are likely to scratch your partner's hand.

2. Long hair, particularly if bound in a ponytail or braid, has been known to clout a leader in the face from time to time. I've found from personal experience that no matter what hair clip I place in my hair, it ends up getting knocked off. I am a tall lady as it is, so any bun or French twist ends up getting bumped during spins and turns.
3. My friend Linda recently reminded me that long fingernails can also lead to some mishaps. She happens to have well tapered natural long nails and has had "friendly advice" from some dance partners that her long nails scratched her partners. (Yes, where she dances in Kentucky, she has actually had people complain to her about her nail length!)
4. Skirt/dress length: this is the issue that prompted our discussion at the recent dance. When you are dressing for a dance and have decided to wear a dress or skirt, take a moment in front of a long mirror and twirl around to assess what happens or ask a friend or your dance partner for an assessment. At this dance we noted that one lady was displaying underwear that was identical to her dress, so this was obviously deliberate, and she happened to have very lovely thighs. Another lady had an obviously unintentional underwear exposure each time she spun. Several of my dance acquaintances choose "dance shorts" or spanx to mitigate this problem. Another dilemma: should you tell a dancer that you can see her panties every time she spins or is this best left unsaid? Hmmmmmm...comments from readers are encouraged.
5. Sleeves: my husband has suggested that I mention sleeves as this has caused some awkward moments. He has a particular problem with jackets and sweaters, as his hand catches in them as he reestablishes his hold after a turn/spin. His hand ends up inside the jacket, and then that's just weird. I've also noted this problem when I've had a blouse with a wide armhole. And Dancers (and that means leaders & followers): sleeveless? A sleeveless armpit is likely to be a sweaty armpit! My husband has also had this unfortunate experience with followers who choose to go sleeveless.
6. Breath mints!!! Please be careful about what you have eaten before or during a dance. Really . . . we've all had a bad experience at one time or another with a poor food or beverage choice, that's all I'm sayin'.

These aren't rules, btw, just suggestions, and I'm sure there are many dancers out there who can add further comments to this list. Most of us who've been "around for a while" certainly learned these things by trial and error, and we want to pass it on to those new dancers who may not be aware that their dance wear selections can have an impact on their partners.

"Let's play nice" (posted 7/26/15)

Human beings being what we are, we tend to be always judging and rating ourselves and other dancers. It seemed when I first started dancing years ago, that it was "not quite the thing" to be critical of people dancing, be it their style, clothing choices or personality. These days I'm finding it more common, at least in our little dance world, to hear negative comments on the sidelines and even worse, from a dance partner!!! Unless requested, it is absolutely NOT OK to give constructive criticism to your dance partner!!! I myself have asked experienced dancers and instructors for feedback. I have also been asked by my newer dance partners for feedback. When I replied that I am not a dance instructor and therefore don't feel comfortable with that, I was advised that positive feedback is just as effective and always welcome!

Let's be positive and remember why we started dancing in the first place: to have fun!!! If cornered by someone with negative comments or gossip, make a polite comment and move on. I am really making an effort to restrain from criticism, even if I have to bite my tongue . . .and you know there are some real characters out there!

How should I handle dance requests? (posted 5/8/15)

Dennis and I want to pass on another dance tip. We have both recently noticed an alarming trend. A gentleman asks a lady for a dance. She declines the invitation and she gives an excuse about needing to change her shoes or feeling tired, etc. Moments later, she accepts a dance from another gentleman. The first gentleman can't help but notice and is therefore somewhat baffled and perhaps offended. Dennis has told me that this has happened to him and some other leaders and as a result, he is not likely to ask that lady for another dance. She may have many valid reasons for accepting the second invitation but it's just bad social dancing etiquette. This is also true for gentlemen who are asked to dance. Dennis and I have an arrangement that if a certain song is played, he will give me first preference and if I am available, we will dance that song. If he should be asked to dance by another lady first, he will decline the invitation but will offer to dance the next dance with her. If he declines an invitation, he will ALWAYS offer to dance with her later. I'm sure most of your readers already are aware of this issue and perhaps it's just happening here in the Queen City, but we felt it was worthwhile passing on.

“How do I get to dance more at social dances?” (posted 9/12/14)

This one is submitted by Jeanne—thanks for her excellent discussion! She got this tips during a dance class. What are your suggestions (whether you are a follower or a leader)?

- Ask leaders for dances! If you wait until you're asked, you may sit for a while as there are followers who don't mind asking leaders for dances.
- Some leaders may turn you down. They may have already made contact with another follower to dance that song, they might be very hot and tired and need a rest, or they may have a previous arrangement to dance a particular dance with a particular follower. If they are practicing good dance etiquette, they will decline your invitation, but offer to dance a later dance with you.
- Some of the leaders mentioned that they will usually not ask a follower who doesn't look like she wants to dance. She may be involved in a conversation with a friend or two and he doesn't want to interrupt. She may be sitting in the back of the room in a dark corner. She may be looking down and have her arms crossed. Leaders tend to ask followers for dances who are making eye contact, smiling, standing on the side of the dance floor or outright asking them for dances.
